

No Compromise

It is easy to delay doing what is right or to compromise to avoid difficulty.

St. Barbara shows us that faithfulness is not something to postpone. Confirmation strengthens us to choose Christ fully, without delay or compromise.

Immediate Choice Discernment

Read the situations below.

Tick (✓) the responses that show steadfast faith:

- ☐ Choosing what is right even when it is inconvenient
- ☐ Waiting until faith feels safer or easier
- ☐ Remaining faithful without excuses
- ☐ Adjusting beliefs to avoid conflict
- ☐ Acting on truth as soon as it is known

Why is delaying faithfulness a form of compromise?

Mini-Reflection (one line)

Complete the sentence:

“Lord, help me choose faithfulness without delay when _____.”

“Holy Spirit, strengthen me to live my faith without compromise.
Help me remain steadfast like St. Barbara.
St. Barbara, pray for me.”
