

Brave Enough to Speak

St. Eulalia refused to stay silent when Christ was denied.
Even as a young girl, she spoke the truth with courage and trust in God.
Confirmation strengthens us to speak truth clearly and respectfully, even when it feels intimidating.

Voice & Courage Scenario

Scenario:

You hear something said about faith, truth, or another person that you know is wrong.

You feel nervous speaking up, especially because others are older, louder, or more confident.

Answer:

What would using your voice courageously look like in these situations?

Mini-Reflection (one line)

Complete the sentence:

“Lord, help me speak with courage when _____.”

“Holy Spirit, give me courage to speak the truth with love.
Help me be brave like St. Eulalia, even when I feel small or afraid.
St. Eulalia of Mérida, pray for me.”
