

The World Needs the Gospel

St. Francis Xavier travelled to India, Japan, and the islands beyond to share the Gospel with people who had never heard of Jesus. He faced storms, sickness, exhaustion, and danger — but the Holy Spirit sustained him.

Confirmation sends you into the world too — not through long voyages, but through your words, actions, and courage.

Main Activity — “Where the Gospel Needs Me”

One reflection box with two short prompts:

Write one place in your daily life where people need to see the love of Jesus (school, family, sports team, online spaces, friend groups, etc.).

(1–2 sentences)

Write one simple way you can bring the Gospel there (kindness, honesty, courage, patience, helping someone, sharing hope).

(1–2 sentences.)

Mini-Reflection (one line)

Complete the sentence:

“The Gospel is needed in _____.”

“Holy Spirit, send me to the places where Your love is most needed.
Give me the courage to be a missionary like St. Francis Xavier.
St. Francis Xavier, pray for me.”
