

Loving People Like Jesus Does

St. Francis Xavier saw every person as someone loved by God.
He treated strangers like family and showed compassion to the forgotten and the suffering.

Confirmation strengthens our hearts so we can love others as Jesus loves them.

Main Activity — “One Person I Can Love Better”

One reflection box with two short prompts:

Write one person you find difficult to love or someone who needs more love (no names — describe the relationship instead).

(1–2 sentences)

Write one way you can show Christlike love to that person.

(1–2 sentences.)

Mini-Reflection (one line)

Complete the sentence:

“I can love others like Jesus when _____.”

“Holy Spirit, fill my heart with Christ’s love.
Help me love every person the way You see them.
St. Francis Xavier, pray for me.”
