

Mission Isn't Always Easy

St. Francis Xavier travelled for years without seeing his home again.
He suffered cold nights, dangerous storms, and long days of preaching
— yet he never gave up.

Confirmation gives us the strength to stay faithful even when serving
God is difficult.

Main Activity — “A Sacrifice I Can Make for God”

One reflection box with two short prompts:

Write one sacrifice you can make as part of your mission (giving up a comfort, being patient, choosing kindness over popularity, resisting temptation, taking time for prayer, helping someone even when tired).

(1–2 sentences)

Write how making this sacrifice can help you grow stronger in your faith.

(1–2 sentences.)

Mini-Reflection (one line)

Complete the sentence:

“I can make a sacrifice for God by _____.”

“Holy Spirit, help me make sacrifices for Your mission.
Give me strength to keep going when it's hard.
St. Francis Xavier, pray for me.”
