

I Serve Christ Alone

St. Marcellus laid down his military belt and weapons, declaring that he could no longer serve earthly powers against Christ.

His courage cost him his position, his freedom, and eventually his life. Confirmation strengthens us to choose Christ even when loyalty to Him puts us at odds with others.

Pressure Scenario — Choosing Allegiance

Scenario:

You are expected to go along with something everyone else accepts, but you know it goes against your faith or values.

Refusing will make you stand out and may bring consequences.

Answer ONE question:

What does choosing loyalty to Christ look like in this moment?

Mini-Reflection (one line)

Complete the sentence:

“I choose to serve Christ even when _____.”

“Holy Spirit, give me courage to serve Christ above all else.
Help me stand firm under pressure like St. Marcellus.
St. Marcellus the Centurion, pray for me.”
