

Faithful Even When I Stand Alone

Sometimes following Christ means being the only one who says “no.”
St. Marcellus chose faithfulness even when everyone around him expected compromise.

Confirmation strengthens us to persevere in truth, even when we feel isolated or unsupported.

Standing Alone Reflection (Minimal & Honest)

Complete the following sentences:

- It is hardest to stand alone when _____.
- When I feel alone for my faith, I can remember _____.

This allows honest reflection without emotional overload.

Mini-Reflection (one line)

Complete the sentence:

“I am never truly alone because _____.”

“Holy Spirit, stay close to me when I feel alone.
Give me perseverance and courage like St. Marcellus.
St. Marcellus the Centurion, pray for me.”
