

My Life Belongs to Christ

St. Oscar Romero's whole life was a gift to Christ and to the people he served.

His martyrdom was the final witness of a heart completely surrendered to God.

Confirmation seals us with the Holy Spirit so that we, too, can live courageously for Christ and His Church.

Main Activity — “How I Can Give My Life to Christ Today”

One reflection box with two short prompts:

Write one way you want to give your life to Christ — not all at once, but today (in prayer, obedience, charity, forgiveness, resisting sin, standing for truth, serving others).

(1–2 sentences)

Write how the Holy Spirit can help you stay faithful to Christ in this daily offering.

(1–2 sentences.)

Martyrdom begins in small daily sacrifices of love.

Mini-Reflection (one line)

Complete the sentence:

“I want to give my life to Christ by _____.”

“Holy Spirit, make my life a gift to Christ.

Give me courage to love Him and His people with my whole heart.

St. Oscar Romero, pray for me.”
