

Listening to God's Voice

St. Oscar Romero learned to listen to God before speaking to the world.
He prayed, reflected, and allowed the Holy Spirit to guide his decisions — especially in difficult moments.

Confirmation helps us form a conscience that chooses justice, truth, and goodness.

Main Activity — “How I Can Listen to God More Clearly”

One reflection box with two short prompts:

Write one area of your life where you need to listen more to God's voice than to the voices around you (friends, social pressure, fear, confusion, anger, temptation).

(1–2 sentences)

Write one way you can listen better to God (prayer, silence, Scripture, Mass, Confession, talking to a priest or trusted adult, learning the Faith).

(1–2 sentences.)

Mini-Reflection (one line)

Complete the sentence:

“I want to listen to God, especially when _____.”

“Holy Spirit, guide my conscience and help me hear Your voice.
Teach me to choose justice, truth, and goodness.
St. Oscar Romero, pray for me.”
