

Trusting God to Guide My Life

St. Patrick trusted God's guidance at every step — whether he was a slave, a student, or a missionary bishop.

He listened for God's voice and followed it with courage.

Confirmation strengthens us to trust the Holy Spirit's direction in our own lives.

Main Activity — “Where I Need God's Guidance”

One reflection box with two short prompts:

Write one part of your life where you need God's guidance (school, friends, choices, fears, future plans, faith questions, habits, etc.).

(1–2 sentences)

Write how you think the Holy Spirit might be guiding you in that area (peace, courage, a new direction, letting go of something, doing the right thing).

(1–2 sentences.)

Mini-Reflection (one line)

Complete the sentence:

“I want to follow God's guidance when _____.”

“Holy Spirit, guide my steps and show me Your will.

Help me follow Your plan with trust and courage.

St. Patrick, pray for me.”
