

Seeing God's Image in Every Person

St. Turibius protected those who were mistreated because he saw their worth through God's eyes.

Every person — rich or poor, popular or lonely, strong or weak — has God-given dignity.

Confirmation helps us see others with the eyes of Christ and treat them with justice and respect.

Main Activity — “Someone I Need to See Differently”

One reflection box with two short prompts:

Write about someone you find difficult to respect or someone who is often ignored, excluded, or treated unfairly.

(1–2 sentences)

Write how the Holy Spirit can help you see this person as God sees them — with dignity, compassion, and worth.

(1–2 sentences.)

Mini-Reflection (one line)

Complete the sentence:

“Every person has dignity because _____.”

“Holy Spirit, help me see every person with the eyes of Christ.
Teach me to honour their dignity and treat them with justice.
St. Turibius of Mogrovejo, pray for me.”
